Dear Ms. Shehar Bano,

We are pleased to offer you the position of Laravel Developer in the Development Department at CodeWorx Developers (Private) Limited, with a start date of November 11, 2025. This is a full-time, in-house position reporting directly to Mr. Muhammad Asim, Team Lead - Development.

During the initial three (3) months evaluation period, you will be expected to contribute effectively to ongoing development projects by writing clean and scalable Laravel code, developing APIs, integrating backend logic, managing databases, and collaborating with frontend and QA teams to ensure timely and high-quality delivery. You will also be responsible for addressing technical issues, participating in code reviews, and maintaining project documentation. This period will serve as a performance-based probation, allowing both parties to evaluate suitability, productivity, and long-term potential.

Your monthly remuneration shall be PKR 50,000/-, payable between the 1st-10th of each month, subject to applicable deductions as per government regulations. In addition, performance-based incentives and bonuses may be offered upon successful achievement of development milestones, code quality standards, delivery timelines, and overall performance as determined by management.

Please note that during the evaluation period, this offer remains conditional upon consistent performance, compliance with company standards, and adherence to all operational and confidentiality protocols. Continuation of employment and any future adjustments to compensation or benefits shall be determined by management based on performance review, conduct, and contribution to overall business growth.

You will be entitled to two paid leaves per month, subject to prior approval. Working hours are 09:00 AM to 06:00 PM (Monday to Friday). However, in the event of increased workload or urgent client matters, Saturday may be considered an active working day as per management's discretion.

Either party may terminate employment during or after the probation period with 15 days' written notice, or in lieu thereof, payment of equivalent compensation.

Please confirm your acceptance by signing and returning this offer letter along with a copy of your CNIC document by November 12th, 2025.

We look forward to welcoming you to the CodeWorx Developers team and are confident that your expertise and efforts will play a key role in our continued success.

Best Regards,

Mr. Amjad Iqbal Amjad I.
Chief Executive Officer

Acknowledgement

I, Shehar Bano, accept the offer and agree to the terms and conditions outlined above.
